Call for video submissions // application guideline

INFO

The Simultan Festival is an annual festival for video, media art, experimental electronic music and a/v projects.

The festival wishes to sustain and to stimulate the creative ways of the most modern visions of perceiving and recording the cultural realities in contemporary art. It presents the current processes and the way in which technology and society give rise to new forms of artistic expression by using the new media.

Based on a different theme every year, the festival presents video art projections, live performances, installations, lectures.

This year's edition runs under the theme Trans:position and will take place on 21-23 May, 2009, in Timisoara, Romania.

TERMS OF ENTRY

Simultan is open for submissions of innovative works, which use technology in a creative, ingenious way or are based on a peculiar, unusual story.

The applicants can send works which fall in one of the two categories below:

- experimental video
- generative visuals based on sound and image manipulations and motion graphics

Those interested may apply with a maximum number of 2 works; each of them must not exceed 5 minutes in length.

Works must be sent in 720x576 avi or quicktime format, with dv-pal compression and 48kh sound, or HD, on DVD (data) or mini DV tape.

Works will be submitted by mail, together with:

- the filled in and signed application form - a separate copy for each work (in hard copy and in digital version on a CD)
- 3-4 still images from each video, in jpg format - minimum size 720x576 pixels (on a CD)
- a CV and a photo of the artist (optional)

The application form in Word/ text format must also be sent by e-mail to: [application\[at\]simultan.org](mailto:application[at]simultan.org)

Warning: we will not consider applications which do not include all the above elements!
